KRAZY KAT "SHEEP SKINNED"

Produced by Charles B. Mintz Distributed by Paramount

Little Red Riding Hood is walking along the road swinging her basket. She stops to fondle a little lamb by the wayside. A ferocious wolf watches her and decides to abduct her. He kills the lamb and becomes a wolf in sheep's clothing.

He rushes to the girl's grandmother's house and puts on her nightgown and cap and gets into the bed. Little Red Riding Hood comes in exclaims on her grandmother's distortions. The wolf then grabs her and she screams.

Krazy Kat who is walking down the lane runs to the rescue. He carries the girl off with the wolf following. They successfully elude the wolf finally and live happily ever after.
